As the premier line of aloe vera skin care products that are sold via licensed skin care experts, Lexli is committed to nurturing the next generation of estheticians. Through the Lexli Esthetic Scholarship, two students are annually awarded a $1,000 scholarship toward tuition and/or education-related costs related to their enrollment in an esthetic program at an accredited esthetic, beauty or cosmetology school - one in the fall and another in the spring. Additionally, scholarship recipients receive a Lexli Professional Introduction Kit, which includes products and collateral materials, valued at more than $500.

To be eligible for the scholarship, applicants must be legal U.S. residents at least 18 years of age and have completed at least one semester or graded cycle in an esthetic program. For full program terms and conditions, visit www.lexli.com/scholarship.

To apply, the following steps must be completed in full by October 1 for the fall scholarship cycle and April 1 for the spring:
